A rave review and RECOMMENDATION for our Nostalgic TH-12 by the "Stereo i Kolorowo" magazine.

Conclusion

*TAGA Harmony Nostalgic TH-12 are floorstanding speakers (but placed on stands) built in the style and likeness of the 70s. With respect for the acoustic tradition, using good patterns and proven technical solutions, but also based on modernity, i.e. current hi-fi audio requirements and modern materials used for their construction. These speakers are aesthetically and precisely made, they captivate with their vintage style, equipped with medium and high tone regulation. They provide dynamic, musical and juicy sound with excellent balance and deepened tone. This sound is spacious and structural, although not overly analytical. Universal, versatile, easy to listen to. An additional bonus is the excellent bass. Overall - a big recommendation, and considering the relatively low price - a very big recommendation! I recommend them especially for tube amplifiers. Best-buy!
